

VOLSTEAD SPEAKER AT GRADUATION ONE OF COLLEGE'S LARGEST CLASSES

Framer of Prohibition Enforcement Act Declares Law Has Been a Success With Few Exceptions. Congratulates Members of Graduating Class.

DECLARES NEAR-BEER OUGHT TO SATISFY THIRSTY

Congressman of Opinion Alcoholic Beer is Greater Curse Than Other Former Popular Drinks. Says There is Not a Man in the House of Representatives Who Would Vote For Return of Saloon.

That prohibition enforcement has been a pronounced success so far except in some parts of the country and that such success during the first year is a "guarantee of the future," was vouchsafed here this morning to an audience of about seven hundred people by Honorable Andrew J. Volstead, Republican Congressman from the ninth Minnesota district and author of the now famous Volstead prohibition enforcement act, who was procured as the 1921 college commencement speaker.

The audience of graduates, their relatives and friends and alumni of the institution who packed Brua Chapel to hear Congressman Volstead speak on the subject of prohibition were not disappointed. Fifteen minutes of his address was given to introductory remarks and congratulations to the graduating class and the remaining thirty to discussion of the prohibition situation.

Starting with a brief account of the work done in the House of Representatives in Washington, Mr. Volstead said "The House of Representatives is not a place for making speeches. We do not make laws that way. We make them by consultation."

Branching on to the importance of the battle of Gettysburg he declared, "Both the North and the South now realize that this battle was a victory for our country and both are glad that the American flag now waves over a united country."

After those two introductory remarks the speaker took occasion to congratulate the members of the class of 1921. "It is difficult to over estimate the value of education," he said, "Wealth lies not in our vast forests and fields, but in the intelligent use of those resources made possible by the advantages of education. But education alone will not insure success. Industry and honesty are even more essential. The old adage 'honesty is the best policy' is just as true now as the day it was uttered."

"To be happy in this life one must be willing to give as well as to receive. To get the most out of life you must make happy those with whom you associate."

"But these topics are dwelt upon continuously by other speakers," he continued. "No doubt you are waiting to hear me talk about the subject of prohibition with which my name has been inseparably linked. I will not disappoint you."

Digressing then from a commencement address to a speech on prohibition Congressman Volstead said in part:

"You are all aware that the manufacture of intoxicating liquors is now forbidden by the eighteenth amendment to the constitution. Despite this fact some persons are asking for the repeal of this amendment. They claim that the majority of the people of America did not want prohibition at the time when it became effective. By making such statements they show they are asleep. Prohibition is not a revolution but a slow and steady evolution. Before the United States sent her soldiers to France sixty per cent of the people lived in dry territory in which the sale of intoxicating liquors was illegal."

"Forty five out of the forty eight states ratified the constitutional amendment. Every Congressman knew that if he voted dry the wets in his home district would find it out and would thereafter oppose him. Yet in view of this fact over two thirds of the men in the House voted dry. To the credit of the House I will say that I do not believe one dollar was spent in bribery of its members."

Women Are Dry
"Since the constitutional amendment went into effect the women of this country have become voters and they are lined up on the side of the dries. The only hope of the wets to repeal the amendment is through subterfuge."

"One of the many things said against prohibition is that it takes away personal liberty. Yes it does take away some personal liberty. We intended it should. The law prohibiting larceny takes away the liberty of confiscating other peoples' property. The law prohibiting murder takes away the liberty of killing people."

When Mr. Volstead spoke to the graduating class there was a slight hesitancy in his delivery. When he launched on his favorite subject, however, he became far more enthusiastic and several times brought forth applause from the audience. Continuing he said:

Talks of Near-Beer

"We have given the wets what is called near-beer. I think they ought to be satisfied with that. If they only thought that the near-beer had a kick in it they would drink themselves full. A saloon keeper in my country advertised 23 1/2 per cent beer only he put a period before instead of after the 2 which if read carefully showed the beer contained less than one half of one per cent of alcohol. Many drinking men in my community were fooled for quite a time and told me they were getting the real stuff."

"Thousands of persons who voted dry were not tee-totalers. I know one member of the House in particular who is nearly always drunk yet he always votes dry. When I want a dry vote I send for him and he'll be sure to respond if he's sober enough."

"Prohibition came despite the reluctance of the people to give up ancient means of diversion. The wets call us who brought about prohibition 'fanatics.' A fanatic, however, is a person who is greatly excited and I think that applies more to the wets now than to the dries."

Can be Enforced

"We are frequently told that prohibition cannot be enforced. Don't be deceived. We are going to enforce it. The law is being enforced effectively except in some few places. These statistics show what is being done:

"In 1917 the American people drank 168,000,000 gallons of spirituous liquor. There were 600 distilleries in operation. Last year they drank 28,000,000 gallons and but three distilleries were going. That's the way prohibition has started in. Such a start is a guarantee of the future. Before the end of this year we expect to close these three remaining distilleries and apprehend all persons making liquor of more than one half of one per cent alcoholic content."

Disregard of Law
"One thing that worries me is the disposition of some of our citizens to disregard the law. I have no sympathy for a person who claims the protection of America and then wants the right to disregard any law which displeases him. Such disregard of law results in anarchy. Mexico and other southern countries are splendid examples of what happens in countries where the citizens do not abide by the majority rule."

"I am proud that America leads the world in this great movement. The wets of the world are upon us."

These honors and prizes were announced:

ROBBERY SUSPECT LANDS IN JAIL

Joseph Schall in Basfile Here on Charge by Abbottstown Man.

ARREST MADE BY CRABBS

Finds Loot in His Possession. Brought Here After Hearing in McSherrystown. Was On Way Here.

Joseph Schall, aged 22 years, Philadelphia, is in the Adams county jail here on the charge of burglary, on information sworn out by Jacob Wolf, Abbottstown. Wolf's store was broken into and rifled Monday night. The store was thoroughly ransacked and left in disorder.

As soon as the robbery was discovered, Mr. Wolf communicated with Chief of Police Jesse Crabbs, Hanover, acquainting him with the facts. At 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Chief Crabbs, in plain clothes, overtook a man on the Lincoln Highway, between Cross Keys and Abbottstown walking on his way to Gettysburg. Chief Crabbs accosted the man and engaged him in conversation, and before his victim realized what was going on, Crabbs had the handcuffs on him.

At Crabbs' request the man emptied his pockets, withdrawing two 32-caliber revolvers, loaded; 110 pennies, two watches, a pair of field glasses, cigars, tobacco and candy. He also had a pair of $5 shoes in his possession.

After the arrest of the suspect, Chief Crabbs lodged the man in the Hanover lockup, and notified Jacob Wolf. Mr. Wolf went to McSherrystown where he brought information before Dr. George L. Rice, justice of the peace, charging the man with burglary. Mr. Wolf identified the goods found on the man as his property.

Jacob Wolf conducts a small general store in a building situated next to his dwelling.

He closed the store at 10 o'clock Monday night as usual. When Mrs. Wolf arose Tuesday morning she noticed that a pane of glass had been removed from a window of the store, and the window raised. On entering the store room she found the place in disorder. Shelves and drawers were rummaged and goods tossed about the place.

Mr. Wolf states that while he cannot state accurately what is missing he has lost a quantity of tobacco, candy, cigars, a pair of pliers, 110 pennies from a cash drawer, or a total loss of about $15.

After Chief Crabbs had the man under arrest he admitted the burglary, it is claimed. He said that his home is in Philadelphia and that he was simply traveling around. He said he was headed for Gettysburg.

EX-COUNTY OFFICIAL DEAD

Thaddeus O. Collins Dies From Effects of Stroke.

Thaddeus O. Collins, former register and recorder of Adams county, died at his home near Two Taverns this morning at 7:30 o'clock from the effects of a stroke of apoplexy. He was aged 74 years, 2 months and 7 days.

Mr. Collins was a cigar maker virtually all his life, retiring from active work only a few years ago.

Beside his widow, he is survived by two sons, Eugene, at home, and Sylvester at Two Taverns. Four brothers and three sisters also survive as follows:

William and Albert Collins, Littlestown; John Collins, near Two Taverns, Vincent, at York; Mrs. William Althoff, Hanover; Miss Jennie Collins, Littlestown, and Mrs. Thomas Regar, Baltimore.

Funeral Saturday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Joseph's Church at Bonneville. Rev. J. M. Nichols officiating. Burial in the cemetery adjoining the church.

ROB WAREHOUSE SAFE

Thieves Tuesday night rifled the safe in the office of G. H. Dutter's warehouse in New Oxford, but secured only $5 in change and a gold watch. Entrance to the building was made from the roof of a box car standing along side the building through a second story window. The safe was not locked. The watch is an heirloom of the family. Indications point to the fact that the man or men were well acquainted with the interior of the building. They left no clues, however.

TRIO OF THIEVES ARRESTED HERE

Young Men Confess That They Robbed Mount Holly Store.

PLANNED ANOTHER HERE

Stated During Cross Examination They Intended to Break Into Western Maryland Ticket Office.

Three young men ranging in age from twenty to twenty four years today confessed in the Adams county jail that early Tuesday morning they robbed a store in Mount Holly of cigars, cigarettes and candy valued at $25. Furthermore the trio admitted that before leaving Gettysburg they had intended to break into the local Western Maryland ticket office.

The men are George Dougherty, 23 years old, 325 Penn street Carlisle; Charles Bouton, 24 years old, 2022 Howard street, Pittsburgh; Johnson Hite, 20 years old, 1008 Annie avenue, Johnstown.

While walking around Center Square this morning Sergeant Charles D. Santee, commanding state trooper here, noticed a suspicious looking trio standing on the corner in front of the Dougherty and Hartley store. Noticing later that one of the youths deposited a satchel in the Plaza restaurant, the sergeant opened it and found several dozen packages of cigars and cigarettes and two boxes of candy.

The sergeant then asked Detective Charles H. Wilson whether or not the boys were from Gettysburg. Detective Wilson replied he knew none of the trio so the pair of officers arrested all of the boys and took them to the jail. There after a thorough cross examination the boys finally admitted that they stole the tobacco and candy in the store of Brady Klepper, Mount Holly Springs.

They wrote out full confessions stating that they met in Carlisle and that Dougherty suggested going to the Mount Holly store where they gained entrance by breaking the lock. They shipped the suit case containing the stolen goods from Hunters Run to Gettysburg.

Two of them slept Tuesday night in the barn behind the Hotel Gettysburg and before leaving town it was their plan to break into the Western Maryland station.

This action was recommended by Dr. William A. Granville in his report to the Board.

Dr. Henry H. Weber, of York, was elected to fill the vacancy in the committee of honorary degrees of the Board caused by the death of Dr. William H. Dunbar, of Baltimore, and re-elected William L. Glatfelter, of Spring Grove, a member of the executive committee of the Board, his term to expire in 1925.

That the past year has been one of the most successful, if not the most successful in the history of the College was the statement of Dr. William A. Granville, president of the institution, in his report to the Board. "For the first time since the entry of our country into the great war, conditions within the institution have again become normal," the president declared. "But more than that, the amount and character of the scholastic work done the order maintained within the institution and the relations between the faculty and the student body; these have never since my arrival at Gettysburg been on a higher or more satisfactory basis than is the case today. "During the past scholastic year 419 students were enrolled in the College,

CAME 3,000 MILES TO CLASS REUNION

Gathering of Class of 1871 Remarkable Event. One From New Mexico.

DR. G. D. STAHLEY, HOST

Other Class And Fraternity Banquets Feature Closing Night of Commencement Festivities.

The unique feature of the 1921 commencement week at Gettysburg College was the fiftieth reunion of the class of 1871.

Tuesday evening in the Academy Campus residence of Dr. G. D. Stahley, one of the class members, eight of these students of a half century ago gathered together and for five hours recalled incidents of their college days.

Twenty three men received diplomas from Gettysburg in 1871 and of this number fourteen are still living. Only six out of the surviving fourteen either failed to hear the call of the chairman or else were unavoidably detained from attending their fiftieth reunion.

The record for long distance traveling belongs without a question to S. E. Busser, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, who came three thousand miles across the continent to be in Gettysburg when his classmates convened. At the present time Mr. Busser has charge of providing recreation and amusement for forty seven thousand employees of the Santa Fe railroad. By his instigation the Santa Fe was one of the first railroads in the country to adopt the system of giving high class entertainment to their workmen.

The other seven men at the reunion were J. Allen Emory, Frenchtown, New Jersey; F. M. Graff, Duluth, Minnesota; C. E. Hay, Baltimore, Maryland; D. T. Koser, Arendtsville; G. D. Stahley, Gettysburg; John Wagner, Hazelton; Charles M. Wolf, Hanover.

RUTH IN JAIL FOR DAY

Home Run King Sentenced For Speeding.

(By Associated Press)

New York, June 8—Babe Ruth, home run king of the New York Americans, today was sentenced to one day in the city prison and fined $100 in Magistrate Court for automobile speeding. It was Ruth's second appearance in court here within the last few weeks on charges of speeding. At his first trial when he escaped, however, with a nominal fine he promised to be good and observe the laws. Six days ago, however, he was caught speeding on Riverside Drive and arrested.

Babe lost some of his famous sunny disposition when he heard Magistrate House pronounce the jail sentence. He had come to court prepared to pay a heavy fine and had peeled a $100 bill from a roll to close the financial end of his sentence. Then he was led from the court room by a keeper to begin serving his time. Officially his day in jail ends at four o'clock this afternoon. Asked if expected to play today against Cleveland the worried ball player replied:

"How can I?"

Then after reflecting for a moment he brightened up and said:

"Well, I may play half of the game."

ARREST WOMAN IN KABER CASE

Said to be One Who Procured Slayer of Wealthy Publisher.

CLUES LEAD TO NEW YORK

Woman is Claimed to Have Hired Three Foreigners to Commit Crime. Widow And Step-Daughter Indicted.

(By Associated Press)

Cleveland, June 8—A woman, said by police to be the actual procurer of the slayers of Dan F. Kaber, Lake-wood publisher, who was mysteriously stabbed to death in his home nearly two years ago, was under arrest here today and was to be questioned by the county prosecutor as to her knowledge of the crime. The woman, arrested at Sandusky, Ohio, early today by Cleveland officers, is claimed to have hired and paid three foreigners to kill Kaber acting on instructions of an other person.

A man police alleged to be one of the actual slayers of Kaber and a relative of woman arrested in Sandusky, is expected to be taken into custody today.

Seek Man In New York

New York, June 8—The police were understood today to be seeking a man here who might have definite knowledge of the murder of Dan F. Kaber, wealthy Cleveland publisher, nearly two years ago. With this man was said to be a woman who the authorities also desired to question. Working on the theory that assassins had been hired to slay the publisher—in connection with whose death his step-daughter, widow and mother-in-law are under indictment, the police are reported to have found in a New York pawn shop a razor with a curious Syrian inscription which was said to have disappeared from the Kaber home the night the publisher was stabbed to death.

STOCK REPORT

Prices Irregular. London Exchange Becomes Weak.

(By Associated Press)

New York, June 8—Price changes in the stock market became increasingly irregular during the active forenoon. After the early covering movement had run its course shorts renewed their attacks against oils, steels and sugars. Those shares declined 1 to 2 points with coppers, equipments and textiles. An opening rate of 7 per cent for call money and gains of 5 and 6 points respectively for Atlantic Coast Line and Louisville and Nashville affected variable recoveries. There were cancellations before noon, however, when oils and steels developed recurrent heaviness. Exchange on London was weak, falling 4 cents under yesterday's final quotation.

There were sixteen men in the party which was commanded by P. E. Lansing.

The men on the convoy are just completing their course of study before going back to their units located in various sections of the country. The trip is being made on motorcycles, camp equipment being carried in motorcycle side cars.

While the trip is primarily an examination for the men, gasoline, tire and oil tests will be made.

U. S. PROPOSES MEXICAN TREATY

Pact to Encourage Amity And Commence With That Nation Sought.

WOULD GUARD AMERICANS

Believe Agreement Would Give Solution to Problem. This Nation Must Have Guarantee From Mexico.

Washington, June 8—The American Government has proposed a treaty of amity and commerce with Mexico, it was announced yesterday at the State Department.

"The fundamental question confronting this Government," the Department's announcement said, "is the safeguard of American property rights against confiscation." It was added that the position taken by the United States should not be confused with any personality or administration, but that an agreement containing definite assurances in writing by Mexico as a whole was sought.

When such assurances against confiscation are received, it was said, there would no longer be any question of recognition. This statement of the Administration's policy toward Mexico was agreed upon by President Harding and his Cabinet yesterday.

The position taken was that the question of recognition was a subordinate one, for the negotiation of "a proper treaty" would "accomplish the recognition of the government that makes it."

Test of Statement
The following statement on the subject was issued:

"The fundamental question which confronts the Government of the United States in considering its relations with Mexico is the safeguarding of property rights against confiscation. Mexico is free to adopt any policy which she pleases with respect to her public lands, but she is not free to destroy without compensation valid titles which have been obtained by American citizens under Mexican laws. A confiscatory policy strikes not only at the interests of particular individuals, but at the foundation of international intercourse, for it is only on the basis of the security of property validly possessed under the laws existing at the time of its acquisition that commercial transactions between the peoples of the two countries and the conduct of activities in helpful co-operation are possible.

Must Have Guarantees

"This question should not be confused with any matter of personality or of the recognition of any particular administration. Whenever Mexico is ready to give assurances that she will perform her fundamental obligation in the protection both of persons and of rights of property validly acquired, there will be no obstacles to the most advantageous relations between the two peoples.

"This question is vital because of the provisions inserted in the Mexican Constitution promulgated in 1917. If these provisions are to be put into effect retroactively, the properties of American citizens will be confiscated an international wrong of the gravest character and this Government could not submit to its accomplishment. If it be said that this wrong is not intended and that the Constitution of Mexico of 1917 will not be construed to permit or enforced so as to effect confiscation, then it is important that this should be made clear by guarantees in proper form. The provisions of the constitution and the executive decrees which have been formulated with confiscatory purpose make it obviously necessary that the purpose of Mexico should be definitely set forth."

NEW BUG HERE FROM CUBA

(By Associated Press)
Miami, Florida, June 8—"Bugologists" here have discovered a new bug, one not uncommon in the tropics but, according to G. F. Mozzette, entomologist in charge of the Federal experiment station here, one never before seen in the United States. It is the Xylotendro luteolus and the visitor has journeyed all the way from Cuba to sample the quality of tender shoots of the Royal Palms here.

Because it is a "sucking" insect and feeds upon the leaflets of the trees Mr. Mozzette considers the bug an undesirable citizen and war already has been declared. The defendants are attempting to repel the invader with a spray composed of one part of nicotine sulphate and 1,200 parts of water. The insect is yellow and an adult specimen is about one half inch in length.

"This is the first record of a Xylotendro luteolus in this country," said Mr. Mozzette. "The insect was recently described in Cuba by Barber, with the host plant given as Oreodoxa. Its identity was determined by Hubert Osborne, of the Ohio State University. Until it was found here last year none was aware of its existence in this country. It makes the new, small shoots of the Royal Palm trees dry up and look unsightly."

SIMS ASSAILS U. S. HYPHENATES

Admiral Likens Enemies Within to Zebras in Address in London.

London, June 8—Rear Admiral William S. Sims, United States Navy, advised Britons and Americans to disregard "dangerous propaganda circulated in America by your enemies and ours," in addressing a luncheon of the English Speaking Union here yesterday.

In denouncing "American Hyphenates" Admiral Sims said:

"I do not want to touch on the Irish question—for I know nothing about it and I haven't found any Englishman who does. But there are many in our country who technically are Americans, some of them naturalized, and some born there, but none of them Americans at all.

Calls Them Zebras
"They are Americans when they want money, but Sinn Feiners when on the platform. They are making war on America today.

"The simple truth of it is that they have the blood of British and American boys on their hands for the obstructions they placed in the way of the most effective operation of the Allied naval forces during the war."

"They are like zebras, either black horses with white stripes or white horses with black stripes, but we know they are not horses—they are asses. But each of these asses have a vote and there are lots of them."

The Admiral advised the British to ignore any resolution "forced by these jackass votes." He deplored the fact that there was a section of the press on both sides of the Atlantic which "put false news on the wires which causes questions to be asked."

NEW INDUSTRIAL FABRIC NEEDED

Charles M. Schwab Says Germany is in Position to Reap Economic Benefits.

South Bend, Ind., June 8—The steel industry is suffering the worst depression in forty years, Charles M. Schwab declared here in a speech in which he asserted that only a new industrial fabric built on a basis of economy can keep German industry from reaping the benefits of the World War.

Mr. Schwab spoke at a dinner given in honor of Albert R. Erskine, president of the Studebaker corporation.

Steel Mills Slow
From a normal production of 40,000,000 tons of steel annually, the industry has slumped until it is now running at less than 10,000,000 tons, Mr. Schwab announced.

"The industrial depression though," he said, "is the best thing that ever happened in the United States, ending, as it did, a ten-year period of growing costs and uneconomical operation. We must now build a new industrial fabric on a basis of economy.

Co-operation Needed
"I make the prediction that unless we American manufacturers take our position on the lines I have outlined Germany will reap the benefits of the late war, because Germany is organized industrially as never before and German workmen are willing to give a full day's work for a day's pay.
"Capital and labor must work hand in hand in this country, and is working hand in hand as never before. And the result will be industrial success."

CONFIRM LASKER

Chicago Advertising Man Will Head Shipping Board.

(By Associated Press)
Washington, June 8—Formal announcement of A. C. Lasker, a Chicago advertising man, as chairman of Shipping Board was made today at the White House. Others who are understood to be virtually assured of places on the board are Meyer Lissner, of Los Angeles, California; T. V. O'Connor, of Buffalo, and Edward C. Plummer, of Bath Maine, all Republicans, and Admiral William S. Benson, retired, now serving as chairman of the Board; former Senator George E. Chamberlain, of Oregon, and Frederick I. Thompson, Mobile, Alabama, Democrat.

QUERIES SIMS ON SPEECH

(By Associated Press)
Washington, June 8—Secretary Denby instructed Rear Admiral Sims today to advise the Navy Department immediately by cable as to whether he was correctly quoted in accounts of an address he made to the English Speaking Union in London, June 7.
Admiral Sims was quoted as having said that there were many persons in the United States who technically were Americans but none of them Americans at all. They are Americans when they want money but Sinn Feiners when on the platform," he said.

ASK MILLION FOR FLOOD RELIEF

Resolutions in Congress to Aid Sufferers at Pueblo, Colorado.

HARDING WILL APPROVE

Collapse of Viaduct Adds to Difficulties. South Side of City Cut Off by Accident.

Washington, June 8—One million dollars would be made immediately available for relief work in the flood district of Colorado under resolutions introduced simultaneously yesterday in the Senate and House by Senator Phipps and Representative Hardy, both of Colorado.

Decision to seek a million dollars for relief was reached by the Colorado delegation in Congress after conferences with President Harding and Secretary Weeks. The proposed appropriation would be used solely in the relief of distress and would not be applicable to the restoration of property.

Indorsed By Harding

Senators Phipps and Nicholson and Representatives Hardy and Vaile were present at the conferences at the White House and War Department. The members of the delegation said that both President Harding and Secretary Weeks were emphatically of the opinion that something should be done by the Federal Government to relieve distress and suffering in the Pueblo district.

The resolution will be treated as emergency legislation, Senator Phipps said, adding that it was expected that the million-dollar relief fund would be available within a couple of days.

The resolution directs the Secretary of War to take all possible sanitary measures to safeguard the health of the population in the flood district, to furnish subsistence and shelter and to give all other forms of aid.

Viaduct Collapses

Pueblo, Col., June 8—The Main street viaduct over the railroad tracks into South Pueblo collapsed yesterday, cutting off communication with the south side. There was no report as to whether there was loss of life. Known dead from Friday's flood totaled 55 yesterday.

Flood damage to three principal railroads entering Pueblo will aggregate $4,500,000, according to an estimate made yesterday by H. A. Tice, division superintendent of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe. Mr. Tice estimated the damage to that road at $2,000,000; that of the Missouri Pacific at $1,000,000; that of the Denver and Rio Grande at $1,500,000.

Have Food For Seven Days

Lieutenant Colonel W. G. Caples, United States Army, arrived in Pueblo yesterday to aid in restoring sanitary conditions. He immediately telegraphed to Fort Sam Houston for trucks, wagons, mules and drivers to remove dead animals and bodies in the flood district.

The food supply of the city was estimated by Colonel Caples as enough for seven days. Train service into Pueblo as far as the State Hospital has been restored. It is expected to provide adequate food transportation, the colonel said.

REFUGEES IN TENTS

(By Associated Press)

Pueblo, June 8—Establishment of a refugees camp today to receive those made homeless by the flood is regarded as Pueblo's greatest step toward restoration of normal conditions. Colonel D. J. Hamrock announced that refugees from various public buildings would be removed to the tent city today. There were about 2,000 homeless in the city, he said, many of whom are Mexicans and virtually helpless. Relief work was being rapidly systematized. Colonel Hamrock said he expected the camp would be needed for 3 or 4 weeks.

FIGHT MAGNATE'S WILL

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 8—An effort will be made to set aside the will of William Penn Snyder, steel magnate, in which he disposed of an estate estimated to be worth $30,000,000.

The contest is to be made by Mr. Snyder's daughter, Mrs. Mary Black Snyder Drew, wife of Judge James B. Drew, of Allegheny county. Through an unusual provision in the will, Mrs. Drew is virtually cut out of participation in the big estate. Under it the estate could not be distributed for sixty years.

GIRL DROWNS UNDER WRECKAGE

Pinned in Water When Car Overturns. Father Unable to Save Her.

Grantville, Md., June 8—Thelma Craig, aged 17, was drowned in a ditch along the National Pike, near Somerfield, 18 miles west of Grantville, while pinned under their overturned car with her father, W. E. Craig, Washington Courthouse, who was unable to help her as she cried to be saved.

Had the unidentified driver of a big touring car that was moving at great speed and had forced them off the road, stopped and given assistance, it is believed the girl would have been saved.

The Craigs were driving east to reach Addison for the night and their car was practically forced off the road and struck a glancing blow by the big touring car coming west at great speed. The crash shot the Craig car into the ditch, turning it over, wrecking the car and pinning Mr. Craig and his daughter underneath.

Mr. Craig and his daughter struggled under the car in the ditch filled with water. Neither could move. "Father, help me, I'm drowning," moaned the girl as she found herself held fast in the rushing water. The frenzied efforts of the father failed to move the wreckage, while his daughter struggled. She was freed when the next car came and lifted up the wreckage.

FINEGAN FAVORS CITIZEN CAMPS

Sends Letter to Principals And Superintendents of The State.

Dr. Thomas E. Finegan, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has sent this letter urging attendance at training camps to all superintendents of schools, high school principals and normal school principals:

"The Department of Public Instruction believes that the United States Citizens' Military Training Camps are conspicuously in the interest of public health and public education, and that it is the patriotic privilege and duty of school officials to spread information among boys of sixteen or over in regard to these camps.

"The camp to which boys from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania would be sent, should they elect, is Camp Meade, Maryland. These camps are free, the government paying all expenses of food and transportation. They will be under the supervision and training in discipline, education and physical development of army officers who have the welfare of these budding young men at heart. During the weeks that a boy may attend, he will receive the benefits of good food, outdoor life, active physical exercise and training in discipline, education and citizenship.

"It is requested that information in regard to these camps be spread among the boys attending your schools. Requests for detailed information should be addressed to the Officer in Charge, Citizens' Military Training Camps, Headquarters Third Corps Area, Ft. Howard, Maryland."

SEIZE VALUABLE OPIUM

Discover Crude Narcotic In Steamship's Bunkers.

New York, June 8—Crude opium valued at more than $200,000, buried deep under coal in the bunkers of the steamship Woudrichen, was seized yesterday by port officials. One thousand bottles of rice wine, similarly concealed, also were taken.

The vessel anchored in the lower bay after arriving from Singapore, and the port officers, disguised as seamen, boarded her. The ship's boatswain claimed 168 bottles of the wine, and demanded an inventory of them. One of the Chinese sailors claimed several bottles, but no one claimed the drugs.

Addressing himself to the 170,000 Lutherans of Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey, represented by 400 clergymen and lay delegates, Dr. Weller declared it is becoming more and more evident in this country "three Christian group principles are being positively demarked—Roman Catholic, Reformed Protestant and Evangelical Lutheran."

TO BE WORLD WIDE IN SCOPE

Great Meeting of Baraca Philathea to Be Held.

(By Associated Press)
Detroit, Mich., June 8—Plans for extending the work of the organization and for forming state associations in every state in the country will be mapped at the annual convention of the World Wide Baraca Philathea Union, to be held here June 23 to 26. The Union, composed of Sunday School classes of all Evangelical churches, and with organizations throughout the world, has a membership of more than 1,000,000 persons.

The Baraca Philathea Union had its inception in Syracuse, N. Y., in 1890, when Marshall A. Hudson of that city organized a Sunday school class from among a group of young men who were waiting outside a church for the services. The organization soon became world wide. Mr. Hudson, the first president of the Union, still holds that position. He, with Arthur A. Hampton, of Detroit, secretary, and Miss Henrietta Haron, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and H. Bell, Jr., of Cleveland, comprise the board of control.

DELAY STILLMAN CASE

New York, June 8—The defense in the Stillman divorce case succeeded Monday in blocking the hearings scheduled to begin Tuesday at Poughkeepsie. John F. Brennan, counsel for Mrs. Anne U. Stillman, obtained from Supreme Court Justice Keogh, at New Rochelle, an order requiring Referee Daniel J. Gleason to show cause on Saturday why further hearings in the case should not be postponed. In the meantime no hearings may be held.

Brennan contended he had been attorney of record for Mrs. Stillman only 72 hours, and had not had sufficient opportunity to familiarize himself with the case instituted by Stillman.

Mrs. Stillman accompanied Brennan from his office in Yonkers to New Rochelle, where the order was issued.

The following additional degrees were announced by Dean P. M. Bickle, who said in making the presentation in part:

Doctor of Laws

Allen J. Smith, Sc. D., of Philadelphia. "With an excellent student record as a member of our class of '83, it is not surprising that Doctor Smith has attained the eminence he enjoys. After graduating here and completing the medical course of the University of Pennsylvania, he was soon appointed assistant demonstrator of Pathology in the medical department of that institution, and a few years later was elected Professor of Pathology in the medical department of the University of Texas. His distinguished merit was recognized in 1910 by his Alma Mater in conferring on him the degree of Doctor of Science, and now she wishes to give further recognition by conferring on him the degree of Doctor of Laws."

Doctor of Science

William Joseph Showalter, Washington, D. C. "Mr. Showalter is now associate editor of the National Geographic Magazine in Washington. After a large experience as a reporter for several newspapers and editor of others, and writer for six years for the Haskin Syndicate, he was called to the position on the staff of the National Geographic Magazine in 1914. He has to his credit also associate editorship of the History of the Panama Canal, and the honor of being decorated as a member of the Order of Bolivia by the government of Venezuela as an appreciation of his excellent writings on Latin-America topics."

Luther Pfahler Eisenhart, Ph. D., Princeton, New Jersey. "Doctor Eisenhart is one of our graduates with the degree of Bachelor of Arts, class of '96. His high rank as a college student gave promise of a distinguished future, and this is being realized. After a year as instructor at our academy he entered Johns Hopkins University and was awarded the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in 1900. After five years as instructor in that institution, four years as assistant professor, he was called to Princeton University-mathematics department. To show his activity at Princeton we need not name the different mathematical and scientific societies which have given him distinguished recognition: He was elected vice president of the American Mathematical Society in 1913; vice president of the American Association for advancement of science in 1916; member of mathematical societies of American, France and Italy; member of American Philosophical Society in Philadelphia; representative of the American Mathematical Society of the National Research Council at the formation of the International Mathematical Union, Strassbourg, in 1920." He is also an author and editor of note in mathematics.

Doctor of Divinity

Rev. Marion J. Kline, of Altoona. "The same earnest spirit and vigor that Doctor Kline showed as a member of the class of 1893 he has manifested in even a higher degree since entering the Christian ministry. So marked have been these characteristics that at the early age of 28 he was elected a member of the Board of Church Extension; a few years later, general secretary of the board of Foreign Missions; he is a member of our Board of Trustees; President of the Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary; member of the Board of Education of the United Lutheran Church; and his marked capability and efficiency have been honored by membership on many of the most important committees."

Professor Abdel Ross Wentz, Ph. D., Gettysburg. "Doctor Wentz, after an exceptionally bright career as a student was graduated here in 1904 and in the Seminary in 1907. He then went to Germany where he engaged in post-graduate study in the universities of Leipzig, Berlin and Tuebingen, doing work under some of the greatest scholars and theologians of the Lutheran Church. After his return he was elected Professor of Biblical Literature and History in our faculty, and in 1916 was called to the chair of Historical Theology in the Seminary. In 1914 he took his examination at the George Washington University and received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, his thesis receiving commendation as one of special merit. His scores of lectures in 1917 on the Reformation and the many he has delivered this year on the Diet of Worms have received well merited praise. The same may be said of the book on "Where Two Worlds Meet", his contribution to the Lutheran Quarterly on "Current Theological Thought in Germany", and other productions of his untiring pen. As scholar, lecturer, teacher, author, he has gained an enviable reputation, and has well deserved it."

Rev. George N. Laufer, Altoona. "Mr. Laufer was a member of our class of '99. He is now pastor of the Second Lutheran Church of Altoona. His strong, ringing voice that we used to hear so often on the college campus has been used, since he entered the ministry, in most acceptably proclaiming the Gospel he has been appointed to preach. His success in his chosen calling is manifest in the high rank he has attained among his fellow ministers and the high esteem in which he is held by his congregation."

Rev. Jerome M. Guss, Philadelphia. "Mr. Guss was a member of our class of 1893, at that time the largest class our institution had graduated. In the twenty five years he has been in the ministry he has made a most admirable record. The strong congregation he is now serving in Philadelphia he took eight years ago as a small mission field, a veritable monument to his wise and faithful service. His services have been in demand, too, by the church at large, and one who is capable of judging and has many opportunities of hearing him says, he is one of the "clearest thinkers and ablest preachers he knows."

Rev. Lewis C. Manges, Harrisburg. "Mr. Manges was a member of our class of 1897. He is now the pastor of the Memorial Evangelical Lutheran Church in our capital city, and his work is meeting with marked success.

His attractive manner and methods lead to frequent calls for his services in organizations and churches other than his own. It will be recalled that a few years ago he was the interesting speaker at our own college Y. M. C. A. services during its special Week of Prayer."

Rev. Joseph H. Musselman, Lancaster. "The class of '99 has the satisfaction of having two of its members honored this day by Alma Mater. Both Mr. Musselman and Mr. Laufer appeared on this stage twenty two years ago to receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Both have made excellent use of their generous natural gifts and academic training. During the short time Mr. Musselman has been in Lancaster he has won a most enviable place in the esteem not only of his congregation but of the whole city. This is but repeating the experience he had in his other pastorates and is a gratifying tribute to his high merit."

Rev. George W. Nicely, Hanover. "Mr. Nicely, of our class of 1901, by his earnest devotion to his high calling, and the manifest capability he has shown, has won a high rank among his fellow ministers. This has been much enhanced by the fine lectures he has recently been delivering on the World's Sunday School Convention in Japan. His work here at college in the fall of 1918, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian the largest number in our history, and in the Academy the number was 99. This makes a total enrollment in the whole institution of 518, an increase of 25 over that of last year; and it is the first time since our founding that the total enrollment has reached the 500 mark. As every indication points to a steady and continuous growth in the future the day is not far distant when our College enrollment alone will reach 500, the limit of the number of students which should be enrolled in what educational authorities have designated as the "efficient college."

Although the name of the institution by the charter has always been Pennsylvania College, it has been popularly known as Gettysburg College and the financial campaign was conducted with the use of the name, Gettysburg. The trustees thought proper that the institution's name should be the one it is known by best. Dr. Granville enumerated at length a number of reasons why the change in the charter name was necessary.

Drive Statistics

Dr. Granville paid high tribute to Dr. J. B. Baker and Rev. William F. Sunday for their splendid success in the Second Mile Campaign in the Million Dollar Drive of the College for Endowment and Expansion purposes. In speaking of Dr. Baker's service the president said, "Solely because of his deep love for his Alma Mater and his gratitude for what she did for him he undertook the difficult task of putting new life into our financial campaign which a year ago was in danger of collapsing." In closing his report Dr. Granville made the following statement as to the status of the financial campaign to date:

Total First Mile $475,000.00
Total Woman's League .. 28,546.42
Total Second Mile 231,271.37

Grand total $734,817.79

DAMAGED THEN PLUNDERED

Double Misfortune Befell W. F. Jacobs on Lincoln Highway.

To have his car damaged as the result of a collision and then to lose a windshield, two tires, tools and a rim by theft was the misfortune which Sunday befell W. F. Jacobs, a resident of near Hammers Hall.

Mr. Jacobs was proceeding westward along the Lincoln Highway when a Reo car from Columbia struck his Ford while attempting to go around it. The machine of Mr. Jacobs turned turtle as a result of the collision but all the occupants escaped injury. The Columbia men admitted they were to blame, it is said, and have offered to make settlement.

While the car was standing along the road during the night thieves took advantage of the opportunity to get away with the above mentioned articles.

TEST WAR TANKS

War Implements Are to be Used in Road Building.

Employees of the State Highway Department here Monday afternoon tested the two ten-ton tanks used by the American Expeditionary Forces in the World War that were sent here for use on the roads. The tanks were sent here several weeks ago, but it was only recently the carburetors and magnetos arrived. The roar of the motors could be heard during the try-out in the outlying parts of town. It has not been decided as to just what use the tanks will be put. The former implements of war were sent out by the War Department to various states to be used in road building operations.

AGAINST DAYLIGHT SAVING

Daylight saving has become an issue in Red Lion, where from present indications it will not be observed. Church members have openly stated they will not attend services on the new time, and at a meeting of the Red Lion grange, the practice was scored as foolish.

THE STORY OF MOTOR OILS

"Atlantic Medium" represents the highest degree of refining skill. Its resistance to change in "body" at widely varying motor temperatures gives it the advantages of oils much heavier, without the disadvantages of the heavy oils. Judiciously used, it leaves little carbon in the combustion chamber, nor does it gum valves, or foul spark plugs.

Asking simply for "medium" oil is a form of indifference that seizes many an unsuspecting motorist and lets him run his engine into a premature repair bill.

To be sure of efficient lubrication — of oil that holds its body against heat, friction and impact — your oil must have "refinement" — "QUALITY!" Ask — definitely — insistently! — for and you'll get it. "Atlantic" became a synonym for highest quality lubricants long before the first automobile was born.

Atlantic Medium

NEUN WON WITH A HOMER

Johnny Neun, Martinsburg first sacker, won for his team Tuesday when he knocked a home run in the sixth inning against Hagerstown with one man on base. Score 6-4. Roberts fanned twelve Hagerstown batters. Rawlings got two more hits.
Batteries: Roberts and Dastling for Martinsburg; Mahan and Russell for Hagerstown.

BILL KING THE VICTOR

Red Robinson, of Hanover, lost a pitcher's battle to Bill King, of Frederick, 1-0 on Tuesday when he uncorked a wild pitch in the fourth inning, allowing Blithen who had tripped to score. King allowed two hits and Robinson six.

EASY FOR WAYNESBORO

Three hits from the bats of Kim-mick and Yordy and two from the ash of Conti were enough for Waynesboro to down Chambersburg, 7-1, in a game called at the end of the seventh on account of darkness. Winstow gave Chambersburg three hits.

ST. MARY'S WINNER BY A LONE TALLY

Trimmed Gettysburg 1-0 Before Commencement Crowd. Hagerty The Star.

Johnny Hagerty, one of the most eccentric hurlers who ever adorned the pitching peak on Nixon field, paid a visit to Gettysburg Tuesday afternoon. Scores of alumni and friends of the institution wish now that Johnny had not been included among the list of commencement guests. He didn't give a nickle to the "Second Mile" campaign nor the Mahaffie Memorial fund. He didn't even hear the valedictory address. But he did give a calcimine coat to Ira Plank's Francers. Mount St. Marys 1-Gettysburg 0.

Hagerty, star Mount St. Marys twirler who is well known here both as a college and Frederick Blue Ridge hurler, is a real pitcher when he's right and an imitation pitcher when he's wrong.

Tuesday he was right. According to Pop Mittinger, official arbiter, Hagerty worked the corners on every strike but two. His fast one had a hop, his curve ball a break and—well all Gettysburg got was five widely scattered bingles.

An unusual incident of the game was that Mount St. Marys scored their winning run in the same inning with two men out and on exactly the same trio of plays which beat Gettysburg over there nine days ago, namely an error by Redcay, a fly ball which fell safe in center field, and a clean single to left.

With two men out in the first half of the ninth inning, Costello hit a sharp grounder to Redcay who fumbled. Elaine soaked a fly ball center field which fell safe among Hersh, Myers and Redcay because neither of the trio was designated to catch it. With two men out and two strikes, Ruiz then singled to left, scoring Costello.

Cal Plowman, the Gettysburg boy who has shown great form many times this season, was nicked for eleven safeties by the Mountaineers but got out of four deep and dangerous holes. Gingerich and Walsh shone afield.

A large crowd, including many alumni, witnessed the defeat.

FARM CALENDAR

Timely Reminders From The Pennsylvania State College.

Potato Spraying—The first members of the potato spraying group of students from State College started work in south-eastern Pennsylvania this week. Spraying should be started as soon as the young plants are from three to five inches above the ground, and continued through the growing season at ten day or two week intervals. Bordeaux mixture, 4-4-50, which can easily be made at home, should be used. Those growers who sprayed well and regularly last season escaped the damaging late blight that prevailed throughout Pennsylvania.

Plea Beetles—It is now an established fact that young potato plants in all parts of the state are being destroyed in large areas by flea beetles. They attack the plants as soon as they appear above the ground. Bordeaux spray should have one pound of dry lead arsenate to every fifteen gallons, to control this pest.

Prediction Comes True—Through the "Farm Calendar" State College specialists recently gave several timely warnings of a serious spread of apple scab in Pennsylvania. The evidence of scab is now here, and is the worst attack of the disease ever experienced in the state. Before the summer is over foliage on diseased trees will drop and fruit buds for next year's crop will not set. A

Why some men seem to have all the tire luck —

YOU probably know a man whose car is a hobby with him. He knows just why it's the best little old car there is of its class.

And he'll stand up for that car against the world in any kind of an argument.

Year by year an increasing number of men feel the same way about U. S. Tires.

For a while they may try "job lot" stuff, "bargains," "big discounts" and "rebates."

But usually it doesn't take long for a man to sense the economy of the standard quality tire.

For years U. S. Tire makers have been building quality tires for sane tire users—for the car of medium or light weight no less than for the heavy car.

The tire buyers of the land have responded with a mighty U. S. Tire following.

The U. S. Tire makers meet the responsibility for supplying this nationwide following with characteristic energy.

Ninety-two U. S. Factory Branches are established, covering the entire country.

Find the U. S. Tire dealer who has the intention of serving you. You will know him by his full, completely sized line of fresh, live U. S. Tires—quality first, and the same choice of size, tread and type as in the biggest cities of the land

U. S. TUBES
The same standard of quality built into U. S. Tires is put into U. S. Tubes.

COURT FINES LAWYERS

Pottsville, Pa., June 8—Judge Koch has fined Attorney A. D. Knittle, brother-in-law of President Judge H. O. Bechtel, $100 for creating a rumpus in court last Thursday. Attorney John F. Whalen, who was alleged to have made insulting remarks to Knittle, was fined $25. Judge Koch said he took no action the day the fracas occurred because he did not wish to punish the lawyers for contempt of court and deprive clients of their lawyers.

A. R. Wentz, their class father while in college, was the guest of honor. The men attending the reunion were Stanley M. Wray, H. A. Kellar, Amos J. Krebs, James Glaes, J. E. Rudisill, Lewis N. Snyder, George H. Trundle, William H. Patrick, Jr., Statton L. Rice, Martin H. Buehler, William F. Sunday, Chester S. Simonton and W. V. Garrett.

In the Hoffman hotel at 9:30 o'clock thirty members and alumni of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity held their annual commencement banquet, Russell L. Sahn acting as toastmaster. C. E. Enterline, of Ashland, was toastmaster of the Sigma Chi fraternity banquet held in the Eagle at the same time the Phi Psis were convening in the Hoffman hotel.

Reception On Campus

These four banquets were not the only social features of Tuesday evening as at 8 o'clock President and Mrs. Granville received hundreds of guests at the "White House". The Alpha Tau Omega entertained at a dance in their house on North Washington street while an alumni dance conducted by the Athletic committee for benefit of the football eleven was in progress in Glatfelter Hall.

SNAKE IN ONION BED

Excelsior, Pa., June 8—When Mrs. John Moll went into her back yard to pull some onions for dinner she encountered two of the largest copperhead snakes ever seen in this territory, she says. She screamed and brought out her husband. With hoe handles they attacked the snakes which struck back, he says, and once one went between his legs. Finally both were killed. They measured three feet six inches long, a record size for copperheads. The snakes were skinned and Mr. Moll says he will have belts made from the skins.

VOLSTEAD SPOKE AT GRADUATION

Association, revealed him as one of our rare men in ability and efficiency."

Rev. William I. Redcay, Hanover.

"Mr. Redcay was a member of our class of 1894 for two years when, owing to financial embarrassment, he was compelled to teach for two years. He graduated from our Theological Seminary in 1897. During recent years, along with his ministerial work, he has been a student of philosophical subjects—chief among them, the Philosophy of Religion. One who knows him well says of him: 'As a preacher and theologian he is recognized in our city as ranking among the best.'"

Master of Art

Professor Martin Henry Thomas, Harrisburg. "Teaching has been the life work of Professor Thomas. His career in that line has been marked not only by fidelity in his work, but also laudable ambition to improve his attainments. This he has done not only by private effort but also by embracing every opportunity under special instructors and special lecture courses given by distinguished men from our colleges and universities."

STUDENT KILLED

Mount Joy, June 8—Thrown from her bicycle when it was struck by an automobile, fourteen-year-old Dorothy Buckwalder, a sophomore student at the local high school, was instantly killed when the machine passed over her. The truck was owned by E. C. Brinsey, of Elizabethtown, and was being driven by John Harstie.

The truck was circling a traffic semaphore when it collided with the bicycle. The young girl was a resident of Lancaster, but had been making her home here. An investigation of the accident is being made by the Lancaster county coroner.

AS LOW AS
$1.00

$1.00 is a remarkably low price for good shirts. We have quite a lot of them here at that price. That ought to give you a pretty good idea of the kind of shirt values we are giving you now. You probably know something about our stocks; nothing but good grade goods.

A Metro Special All-Star Production. From the Celebrated Melodrama by Cecil Raleigh. Scenarioized by June Mathis. Directed by Rex Ingram. They fought hard over the game of cards—one man to recoup his big losses, the other to win the daughter's hand. Then they learned that she was secretly wedded to a young forester.
